

timony of any person residing in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere, out of reach of the process of said court; and such person shall voluntarily attend any term of said court, for the purpose of testifying for the state in such proceeding; it shall be lawful for the judge of said court to allow said witness so attending, such sum as may be reasonable compensation for the loss which he may sustain by such attendance, not to exceed ten dollars per diem; and certificates for the allowance so made shall be issued by the clerk of said county, and levied by the county commissioners of said county as in the case of all other allowances to witnesses.

In force from February 18, 1864.

ARTICLE XVII.

Queen Anne's County.

CENTREVILLE.

32 Who entitled to vote.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

75. Compensation of clerk oath to be administered by him

76 County commissioners empowered to levy for repairing roads and streets of Centreville

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES

92. Number fixed.

93 How justice to proceed when defendant resides in another election district

ROADS.

108. Gate-owners on public roads to pay annual tax when gates not to be allowed.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

157 County commissioners to appoint a keeper of standard weights and measures: his duties

158 What weights and measures to be used.

159. Sums as his compensation to be levied return of weights and measures.

160 Additional salary

161 Sections of public general laws made applicable,

162 Penalty for using unlawful scales, &c.

BRIDGES.

1864, c. 111 provides that the county commissioners of Queen Anne's county, are authorized and empowered to have a bridge built over Island creek, from the shore of the Messrs. Bookers, to the opposite shore of Edward H. Leaverton, if in their judgment, the public interest and convenience require the same to be erected, and to have the cost of the same levied upon the assessable property of Queen Anne's